Technocarb Stand-Alone Air/Fuel Management Closed Loop System

This proven automotive technology has now been adapted to fit all lift truck carburetion systems. An oxygen sensor in the exhaust manifold detects if the engine air/fuel ratio is too rich or too lean. The Omni III automatically adjusts the proper fuel mixture for maximum efficiency and lowest possible harmful fuel emissions.

- Works with air valve and venturi mixers
- Universal installation on all engines
- Built-in fuel mixture and diagnostic indicators
- Plug and play wiring harness
- Factory calibrated

Three-Way Catalytic Converter

REDUCE EXHAUST EMISSIONS BY 99%

Once the carburetion system is properly performing with a fuel/air controller, a catalytic converter can provide additional reduction in emissions by more than 99%. Catalytic converters are designed for applications that require the lowest possible emissions of carbon monoxide (CO), nitrogen oxides (NOx) and hydrocarbons.
